Documentation for Senator Catalog

A. Logged Out Dashboard (Page 1)

This screen represents the public-facing dashboard accessible to all users without authentication. It introduces the Senatorial Candidate Catalog under the Commission on Elections branding and provides general election reminders. The page ensures that first-time or guest users can immediately access election-related information without barriers, promoting voter awareness and accessibility.

The screenshot shows the homepage of the Commission on Elections (COMELEC) website. The header features the COMELEC logo and the text "Commission on Elections". Below the header, there is a large circular seal of the Commission on Elections, Republic of the Philippines, established in 1940. The seal contains a sunburst design with the words "COMMISSION ON ELECTIONS" at the top and "REPUBLIC OF THE PHILIPPINES" at the bottom. In the center of the seal is a stylized eagle holding a pen and a scroll. The scroll has the words "VOTER POPULUS" and "VOTE DULY". To the left of the seal, the text "SENATORIAL CANDIDATE CATALOG" is displayed in large, bold letters. Below this, a smaller text block reads: "This catalog has been created to help increase voter awareness by providing clear and informative guidance on the ratings, platforms, and track records of candidates, enabling the public to make informed and responsible decisions when casting their votes." At the bottom of the page, there are two buttons: "LOGIN" and "REGISTER". The main title "Election Reminders" is centered at the bottom of the page.

The screenshot shows the "Election Reminders" section of the website. The title "Election Reminders" is prominently displayed at the top. The page is divided into several sections: "Regular Voting Hours" (7:00 AM to 7:00 PM), "Early Voting Hours" (5:00 AM to 7:00 AM), "PAALALA SA MGA BOTANTE" (with an icon of a megaphone), "MGA HAKBANG SA PAGBOTO" (with an icon of a ballot box), "LUMAPIT" (with an icon of a ballot box being inserted into a slot), "KUNIN" (with an icon of a ballot box being held up), "I-SHADE" (with an icon of a ballot box being shaded), "IPASOK" (with an icon of a ballot box being placed into a counting machine), "SURIIN" (with an icon of a ballot box being checked off), and "MAGPALAGAY" (with an icon of a ballot box being sealed). To the right, there are two tables: one for "National" elections (12 Senators, 1 Party-List) and one for "Local" elections (1 Member of House of Representatives, 1 Provincial Governor, 1 Provincial Vice-Governor, 1 City/Municipal Mayor, 1 Vice-Mayor, Sangguniang Panlungsod o Bayan). Below these tables, a section titled "IMPORTANT DATES" lists key dates: ELECTION PRINCIPLE (May 13, 2025), Campaign Period for NATIONAL, PROVINCIAL, and LOCAL OFFICES (April 17 to May 12, 2025), General Period for LOCAL OFFICES (May 14 to May 15, 2025), Voting for NATIONAL, PROVINCIAL, and LOCAL OFFICES (May 13, 2025), Arrival of COMELEC Staff (May 13, 2025), and Final Counting and Declaring of Results (May 14, 2025).

B. Logged In Dashboard

The logged-in dashboard displays the same core content as the public dashboard but unlocks additional user-level functionality. Authenticated users gain access to interactive features such as viewing candidate ratings and detailed catalogs. This separation reinforces role-based access control while maintaining a consistent user experience.

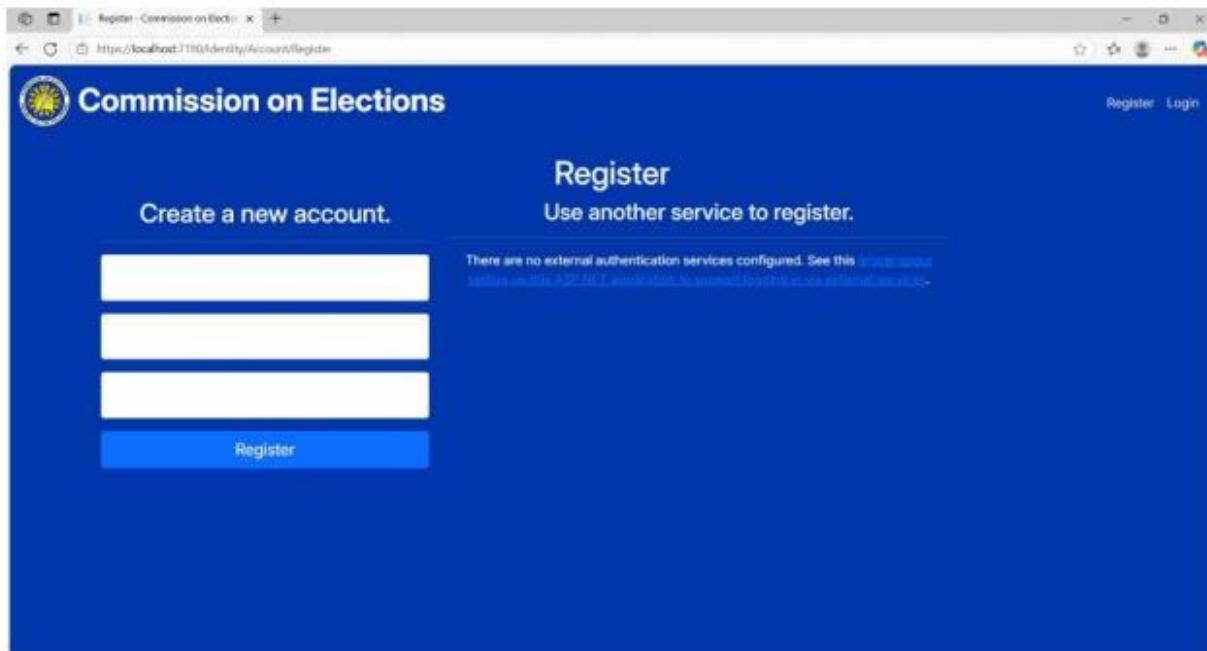

This screenshot shows the homepage of the COMELEC Senatorial Candidate Catalog. At the top, the COMELEC logo and the text "Commission on Elections" are displayed. To the right, there is a "Hello admin@example.com" message and a "Logout" link. The main title "Senatorial Candidate Catalog" is prominently shown. Below the title, a message states: "This catalog has been created to help increase voter awareness by providing clear and informative guidance on the ratings, platforms, and track records of candidates, enabling the public to make informed and responsible decisions when casting their votes." A large circular seal of the Commission on Elections, Republic of the Philippines, is visible on the right side. Below the seal, the text "Election Reminders" is displayed.

This screenshot shows the "Election Reminders" section of the COMELEC website. It features several informational boxes and tables. On the left, there are sections for "Regular Voting Hours" (7:00 AM to 7:00 PM) and "Early Voting Hours" (5:00 AM to 7:00 AM). Below these are three columns of icons and text: "PAALALA SA MGA BOTANTE" (with a megaphone icon), "MGA HAKBANG SA PAGBOTO" (with a ballot box icon), and "MGA IBOBOTO SA 2025 NLE" (with a ballot box icon). To the right, there is a table titled "LUMAPIT" showing the election schedule for the House of Representatives. Another table titled "KUNIN" provides information about voter identification cards. Below these are sections for "I-SHADE" (Automated Counting Machines), "IPASOK" (Voting Process), "SURIIN" (Voter Receipt), and "MAGPALAGAY" (Reporting Results). On the far right, a large table titled "IMPORTANT DATES" lists various election milestones with their corresponding dates.

ELECTION PERIOD	DATES
Village/Barangay/Political Subdivision	March 20 to May 20, 2025
Provincial/Local Government Unit	March 20 to May 20, 2025
Constituency/Statewide/Philippines	March 20 to May 20, 2025

Final Tallying and Tabulation of Votes	May 21 to 22, 2025
ELECTION DAY	MAY 23, 2025

C. Registration Page

This page allows new users to create an account by submitting required credentials. It supports secure user onboarding and integrates with the system's authentication mechanism. The interface is minimal and focused to reduce friction during account creation.

D. Confirmation Page

After registration, users are redirected to the confirmation page, where they are instructed to verify their email address. This step enforces account authenticity and enhances system security by ensuring only verified users gain access to protected features.

Two screenshots of the Commission on Elections 'Register confirmation' and 'Confirm email' pages. The top screenshot shows the 'Register confirmation' page with instructions to click the link in the email to confirm the account. The bottom screenshot shows the 'Confirm email' page with a green success message: 'Thank you for confirming your email.' Both pages feature the Commission on Elections logo, a dark blue header with 'Register' and 'Login' links, and a similar layout to the registration page.

E. Login Page

The login page enables registered users to authenticate using their credentials. It serves as the gateway to user-only and admin-only functionalities. The interface supports standard authentication workflows aligned with ASP.NET Identity practices.
